Origin of Taekwondo

Taekwondo is a martial art with traditions dating back more than 2000 years. It was not officially recognised as a system of self-defence until the 1950's, when a group of leading martial artists came together and unified their various art forms under a single style of hand and feet fighting.

The word 'taekwondo' means "The way of Hand and Foot". Taekwondo's philosophy is: "Those who practise the martial must practice the virtue - taking virtuous teachings to be primary, and martial technique to be secondary."

Taekwondo has developed into one of the most effective styles of unarmed self-defence in the world.

Taekwondo Today

The sport of taekwondo is now practised in more than 160 countries with its population of more than 50 million throughout the world. Korea and the Democratic People's Republic of China have dominated this sport, but that superiority is now being challenged by European countries.

Taekwondo at the Olympic Games

Taekwondo is making its first appearance at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games. It was a demonstration sport at the Barcelona 1992 Olympic Games.

Taekwondo in Australia

Taekwondo was first introduced in Australia in 1956. Taekwondo Australia Incorporated is the national federation of taekwondo in Australia. Over the last 35 years the sport's participation base has grown to 120,000 practitioners. There are about 1,000 taekwondo schools in Australia with 3,000 registered competitors.

Origines du taekwondo

Le taekwondo est un art martial dont les traditions remontent à plus de 2000 ans. Ce sport n'a été reconnu officiellement comme moyen d'auto-défense que dans les années 1950, lorsque les plus grands experts en arts martiaux se sont associés dans l'intention d'uniformiser les différents styles en cours pour créer un style unique de combat basé sur des techniques de coups de poing et de coups de pied. Le mot 'taekwondo' signifie littéralement « la voie du poing et de la savate ». Sa philosophie se résume ainsi : « Ceux qui pratiquent l'art martial doivent pratiquer la vertu, c'est à dire considérer l'apprentissage de la vertu comme plus important que celui de la technique. » Le taekwondo est aujourd'hui l'un des moyens d'autodéfense sans arme les plus efficaces au monde.

Le taekwondo de nos jours

Le taekwondo compte aujourd'hui plus de 50 millions d'adeptes répartis dans quelque 160 pays. Certains pays européens commencent à disputer la prédominance sud-coréenne et chinoise.

Le taekwondo aux Jeux Olympiques

Le taekwondo fait ses débuts olympiques aux Jeux de Sydney 2000 après avoir été sport de démonstration à Barcelone en 1992.

Le taekwondo en Australie

Taekwondo Australia Incorporated joue le rôle de fédération nationale de taekwondo en Australie, où ce sport a fait son apparition en 1956. Quelque trente-cinq ans plus tard, 12 000 personnes y pratiquent ce sport, près de 1 000 écoles ont été créées et 3 000 concurrents participent à des compétitions officielles.

RULES OF TAEKWONDO

The taekwondo competitions at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games will be held in accordance with the rules of the World Taekwondo Federation (WTF) and the Olympic Charter which are in force at the time of the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

Propagation of the WTF Competition Rules is made through the International Referees. To secure impartial judgement of technical officials, the WTF and its member nations have developed an electronic scoring system.

Technical Organisation

Pursuant to the Olympic Charter, the WTF shall be responsible for the technical control and direction of its sport at the Olympic Games.

Competition Method

Contests are conducted in 12m x 12m competition area surfaced with mats. For the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games, the competition area has been raised onto a podium. Two contestants, "Chung" (blue) and "Hong" (red) contest each other by punching and kicking techniques performed on permitted parts of the body. Hits below the lower abdomen are forbidden. All vulnerable parts of body are covered with protectors.

Contest

One contest consists of three rounds of three minutes each with one-minute recess between rounds. One referee and three judges manage the contest. Points are considered valid when two or more judges recognise and register them. One effective attack obtains one point.

The winner is determined by knockout or points. In case of a tie score, a decision is made by superiority, which is based on the initiative shown during the contest.

Scoring Format

In taekwondo contests, kicks to the body and face are permitted, while only punches to the body are permitted. Each scoring technique earns one point. Contest scores are the sum of the points scored in three rounds with penalties deducted. Points and penalties are made public by computerised electronic scoreboards.

Penalties

There are two types of penalties: warning and deduction. Two "Kyon-go" (warning penalties) or one "Gam-jeom" (deduction penalty) are subject to deduction of one point.

During a contest, if a contestant accumulates three penalty deduction points, the contest is stopped and his opponent is declared the winner by the referee.

Disqualification

When a contestant is found not eligible for the contest, or is disqualified at the weigh-in, a win by disqualification is declared. The contestant can also be disqualified for unsportsmanship-like conduct against his opponent or the referee.

Decision of Superiority / 4th Round

In the event of a tied score by deduction of points, determination of the winner is made by the rules of superiority as follows:

The winner shall be the contestant awarded any point or more points through the three rounds;

Where both contestants received the same number of points or deductions, the winner shall be decided by the Referee based on superiority throughout all three rounds; and,

The decision of superiority shall be based on the initiative shown during the contest.

In the case of a tied score in the gold medal contest, the 4th round of three minutes will be conducted with the sudden death overtime system.

Protests

If coaches and section managers are not satisfied with the outcome of a contest, they can lodge an official protest. Lodgement of protests must be made within 10 minutes of the conclusion of the contest. The "Board of Arbitration" resolves protests and its finding is final.

Protective Equipment

As taekwondo is a full contact sport, contestants are required to wear protective equipment before entering the competition area. Protective equipment used in taekwondo competitions are headgear, trunk (body) protector, forearm and shin guards, and groin guard.

Les compétitions olympiques de taekwondo se dérouleront du 27 au 30 septembre 2000 (jours 12 à 15) au Centre sportif de Sydney.

Le nombre de taekwondoïstes pouvant participer aux Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000 sera limité à 100 (52 hommes et 48 femmes). Les CNO ne pourront présenter plus de quatre concurrents (deux hommes et deux femmes) et ne pourront inscrire qu'un athlète par catégorie de poids. Toutefois, les dispositions applicables au pays hôte seront différentes.

FORMAT DES COMPETITIONS

Les compétitions se dérouleront selon un système d'élimination directe avec double repêchage pour la médaille de bronze. Le vainqueur de la finale recevra une médaille d'or et le second prix sera une médaille d'argent.

Les concurrents s'étant inclinés devant ceux parvenus en finale seront placés dans le tableau de repêchage. Ceux battus en demi-finale y seront également inscrits, mais directement en demi-finale. Les autres perdants seront placés dans le tableau de repêchage sans tenir compte de leur statut de tête de série. Les gagnants progresseront dans le tableau et les perdants seront éliminés. Le concurrent qui remportera la finale de repêchage recevra la médaille de bronze.

REGLEMENT DES COMPETITIONS

Les compétitions de taekwondo se dérouleront conformément au règlement de la Fédération Mondiale de Taekwondo (WTF) et à la Charte olympique en vigueur au moment des Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000. Le règlement de compétition de la WTF sera diffusé et appliqué par les arbitres internationaux. Afin de garantir un arbitrage impartial des officiels techniques, un système électronique de pointage a été conçu par la WTF et ses pays membres.

ORGANISATION TECHNIQUE

En vertu de la Charte olympique, la WTF assume la responsabilité du contrôle et de la direction techniques du taekwondo aux Jeux Olympiques.

COMPETITION

Lors des Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000, les combats se dérouleront sur une aire de compétition de 12 m x 12 m recouverte de tapis et installée sur une plate-forme. Deux taekwondoïstes, Chung (le concurrent au plastron bleu) et Hong (le concurrent au plastron rouge) s'affronteront en utilisant des techniques de coups de poing et de coups de pied appliquées aux parties du corps autorisées en compétition. Les coups portés au-dessous de la ceinture seront interdits et les parties vulnérables du corps seront protégées par un équipement spécial.

COMBAT

Les combats se composeront de trois reprises de trois minutes chacune, avec une minute de repos entre les reprises. Un arbitre et trois juges se chargeront de diriger et d'évaluer le combat. Un point sera considéré comme valide lorsque deux juges au moins l'auront comptabilisé comme tel. Toute attaque réussie vaudra un point.

Les concurrents pourront remporter un combat de deux façons : aux points et par K.-O. En cas d'égalité entre les combattants, la victoire sera accordée à celui qui aura fait preuve de supériorité technique par rapport à son adversaire, c'est-à-dire qu'il sera évalué sur ses initiatives durant le combat.

SYSTEME DE POINTAGE

En combat, les coups de pied au visage et sur le corps seront autorisés. Quant aux coups de poing, ils ne pourront être portés que sur le corps. Toute attaque réussie comptera pour un point. A la fin du combat, le score de chaque concurrent sera le résultat des points qui lui auront été accordés au cours des trois reprises, moins les pénalités qu'il aura éventuellement accumulées. Le public pourra suivre l'attribution des points et des pénalités sur des tableaux d'affichage électronique.

PENALITES

Deux types de pénalité seront appliqués : les avertissements (Kyong-go) et les sanctions (Gam-jeom). Deux avertissements ou une sanction correspondront à une déduction d'un point. Lorsque trois points seront enlevés à un concurrent, l'arbitre devra arrêter le combat et accorder la victoire à son adversaire.

DISQUALIFICATION

Si un concurrent ne remplit pas les conditions de participation au combat ou qu'il est disqualifié à la pesée, l'arbitre le déclarera alors perdant par disqualification. Un combattant pourra également être disqualifié pour comportement contraire aux règles du sport s'il tient des propos ou effectue des gestes indésirables à l'encontre de son adversaire ou de l'arbitre.

DECISION DE SUPERIORITE

En cas d'égalité entre les concurrents pour cause de déduction de points, le vainqueur du combat sera désigné d'après les critères suivants :

- Le gagnant sera celui qui aura accumulé au moins un point ou le plus de points au cours des trois reprises.
- Si les deux concurrents ont marqué le même nombre de points ou reçu le même nombre de pénalités, l'arbitre les départagera d'après la supériorité technique montrée par l'un des deux combattants au cours des trois reprises.
- Cette décision de supériorité se fondera sur l'initiative montrée par les concurrents au cours du combat.

En cas d'égalité dans un match de finale de médaille d'or, une quatrième reprise de trois minutes avec "peine de mort subite" sera disputée.

RECLAMATIONS

EQUIPEMENT DE PROTECTION

Le taekwondo étant un sport de contact, les concurrents devront s'équiper de casques, plastrons, protections tibiales et cubitales, ainsi que de coquilles, avant d'entrer sur l'aire de combat.
